

GWENDOLYN BROOKS POETRY AWARD

EMERGING WRITERS COMPETITION

SECRETARY OF STATE & STATE LIBRARIAN JESSE WHITE • ILLINOIS STATE LIBRARY
ILLINOIS CENTER FOR THE BOOK • ILLINOIS POET LAUREATE KEVIN STEIN

Secretary of State and State Librarian Jesse White, the Illinois Center for the Book and Illinois Poet Laureate Kevin Stein are pleased to announce the 12th annual Illinois Emerging Writers Competition, Gwendolyn Brooks Poetry Award. Named for the late award-winning poet and Illinois Poet Laureate Gwendolyn Brooks, the contest promotes creative writing, encourages local writers and provides a unique opportunity for recognizing new literary talent in the state.

The award for first place is $500, second place is $300 and third place is $100. Winning poems will also be submitted for possible publication in "Ninth Letter," "Quiddity" and "RHINO" journals and "Poetic License Press" publications.

We gratefully acknowledge Illinois Poet Laureate Kevin Stein for his continued support in making this competition possible. Dr. Stein is the final judge of the Gwendolyn Brooks Poetry Award.

ELIGIBILITY

Entrants

- All entrants must be an Illinois resident, age 18 and over.
- Those who have published a full-length poetry collection via a commercial or not-for-profit press are NOT eligible. For contest purposes, a full-length poetry collection is defined as a volume of 48 pages or more published in paper or digital format by a commercial or not-for-profit press.
- Those who have published poems in paper or digital literary journals, magazines, anthologies and/or chapbooks ARE eligible.
- Judges, officials, Secretary of State employees and Illinois Center for the Book advisory committee members and members of their immediate families are NOT eligible. Proof of eligibility is required.

Entries

- All entries must be original, unpublished and not currently scheduled or under contract for publication in a paper or digital format literary journal or magazine. All works that have appeared in print or on the Web, including self-published works and works that have been broadcast, are considered previously published and are, therefore, NOT eligible for the competition.
- In the instance of work simultaneously submitted to literary journals and/or contests in addition to the Illinois Emerging Writers Competition, entrant agrees to contact the Illinois Center for the Book immediately upon notification of his/her submission being published elsewhere during the course of entry and judging of the competition; understanding that his/her entry in the Illinois Emerging Writers Competition will then be ineligible.
- All entries must be typed or word processed, double-spaced, one-sided and include the poem title at the top of the first page. Multiple page submissions

ENTERING

Entries must be postmarked by June 30, 2016, and include the following items:

- Two copies of the poem.
- Completed entry form.
- Check or money order for $20 per submission, payable to Illinois Secretary of State. Cash is not accepted. Entry fee is non-refundable.
