

U.S. REPRESENTATIVES FROM ILLINOIS

114th Congress

Illinois is drawn into 18 congressional districts with one representative elected from each district to serve in the U.S. House of Representatives for a two-year term. In the 2014 general election, 10 Democratic and eight Republican U.S. Representatives were elected to serve in the 114th Congress.

Incumbents held on to 16 Illinois congressional seats. Republicans picked up two congressional seats in the November 2014 election, reversing the trend from 2012. In the 10th District, Republican Robert Dold won a close battle with Democratic incumbent Brad Schneider, who had ousted Dold from Congress two years earlier. Republican Mike Bost, a state representative from Murphysboro, defeated Democrat William Enyart in the 12th District.

The 114th Congress serves from Jan. 3, 2015, to Jan. 3, 2017.
