Secretary of State's Chicago Heights Facility Closed until Further Notice

The Secretary of State's Chicago Heights Driver Services facility is closed until further notice because of a fire that damaged the building last night.

The cause of the fire, which broke on the south side of the building just after 9 p.m., is currently under investigation by fire officials.

The facility is now closed until further notice. Beginning tomorrow, customers are advised to visit nearby facilities including Midlothian, Joliet, Naperville and Bradley or take advantage of online services by visiting www.cyberdriveillinois.com.
