Jesse White Illinois Secretary of State

The Office of the Secretary of State is the most diverse of its kind in the nation. From issuing driver's licenses and registering vehicles to promoting organ/tissue donor awareness, overseeing the Illinois State Library and administering the state's literacy efforts, my office directly touches the lives of nearly everyone in Illinois.

To help acquaint you with this large and diverse agency, a brief overview of Secretary of State departments is on the back of this card along with contact information. While this is not a comprehensive account of the wide variety of programs and services provided by my office, it's a tool to help point you in the right direction.

Should you have any questions regarding these and other Secretary of State programs and services, please call the appropriate telephone number on the back of this card. I look forward to serving you.
